Beginning Of Stronger Stand In Far East By Britain, U.S. Is Seen

Today's War Moves

NEW implications of Germany's hope to control Dakar, capital of French West Africa and the most favorable trans-Atlantic base for an offensive against the western hemisphere, are contained in an announcement by the French government of changes in colonial administration. A statement issued at Vichy says France's African colonies are to be consolidated in larger units, except the port of Dakar, which is to be administered separately.

There is no logical reason why the capital of French West Africa should be given this special status. It is explained at Vichy as "indicating a greater German activity here, and hence a direct line to the move having been made under German pressure."

Arrival of German technicians at Dakar became known last week. This action, coupled with the quick subsequent proclamation of an independent administration for the great African port which offers

CLIPPER OF HORSE TAILS IS SENTENCED

Transient Worker Found Guilty Of Theft, Cruelty To Animals

Prison sentences totalling 12 months in all if certain facts are not paid were imposed in police court Saturday on John Pawlik, transient country worker, who pleaded guilty to 10 charges of theft and five of inflicting unnecessary cruelty on horses, for clipping most of the tail hair from the animals.

Accused, who was arrested as the result of a two-year investigation by Det. Corp. W. L. Staley and Const. F. L. T. King, R.C.M.P., found himself in the Edmonton Police Court, Saturday, charged with clipping the tail hair of horses in many northern Alberta districts and selling the same in municipalities who use the hair for padding.

Corp. Staley stated that hundreds of complaints had been received in 1938 in the Edmonton, Fort Saskatchewan, Leduc, Camrose and Dams districts of horses having their tail hair clipped.

Once several horses that a prominent breeder had planned to exhibit at the Edmonton Exhibition had their tails clipped, with the result that the breeder suffered loss of several thousand dollars by being unable to exhibit the animals at the sale.

A race horse was also treated in a like manner. This meant the horse was ruined for racing purposes as it takes three years for the tail to grow in again, the police officer said.

Withdrawal Of British Troops From Shanghai Has No Effect On American Policies In China

By HOBART C. MONTEE

British United Press, Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Withdrawal of British troops from Shanghai may mark an end to the British policy of appeasement in the Far East and a beginning of a stronger stand against Japan by both the United States and Great Britain, diplomatic circles believed today.

JAPAN SEEKS CONTROL ZONE IN SHANGHAI

May Make Bid To Take Over British Sector Of Settlement

By ROBERT BELLAIRE

British United Press, Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
SHANGHAI, Aug. 10.—Japanese army authorities may make a bid to take over the big British defence sector of the international settlement and thus establish a large force of troops in the foreign area which they have long desired to control, it was indicated today.

The Japanese army newspaper, Taikoku, in its first comment on the order for British troops to withdraw from Shanghai and northern China, said the British sector should be turned over to the Japanese forces.

The Japanese army newspaper, Taikoku, in its first comment on the order for British troops to withdraw from Shanghai and northern China, said the British sector should be turned over to the Japanese forces.

(Any such move probably would put Japanese troops inside American Marine zone which on July 3 had cabled the state department urging withdrawal of the British.)

It was believed that Japanese army men might follow a suggestion of the American, British, Italian and Japanese commanders during the intervention.

MULLEN URGES CHANGED BASIS CROP DELIVERY

Strong representations that the Dominion reconsider the Canadian Wheat Board order that first delivery of new crop grain are to be on the basis of five bushels per seeded acre have been made to Hon. J. A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce, by Hon. D. B. Mullen, Alberta minister of agriculture.

Mr. Mullen stated in his wire that he considered the announced flat rate per acre disadvantageous to mixed farmers because their immediate income on this basis represents a small fraction of their crops in the mixed farming areas, where wheat yields are high and much less-priced coarse grain is raised. Mr. Mullen said he would favor a percentage basis with one-third of the threshed crop as the first quota.

He also asked that an early announcement be made concerning the basis for advances on stored crops and requested that farmers be allowed to obtain immediate credits against the advances for the harvesting expenses.

GLADYS TELLS HER FRED HOW TO FACE FACTS

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—The personal column in a Chicago newspaper carried this notice yesterday: "Gladys—Conscription passes—you lose me for a yr., prot. to your son. This morning's column carries this answer: 'Fred—are you man or mouse? A country boy living in is worth fighting for. Don't be a pansy, Gladys.'"

These sources said that withdrawal might have appeared on the surface to be another concession to Japan, but might also have been done to clear the decks for action in a last-ditch defense of the British crown colony of Hong Kong.

Military and naval experts agreed with this view. They pointed out that the British forces at Shanghai, Peiping and Tientsin totaled only a handful of men in those exposed positions, and probably would have been sacrificed immediately if actual hostilities had broken out. The same number of men, withdrawn to the fortress works of Hong Kong, would afford greatly needed reinforcements at that post.

STIFFENING STAND

A stiffening of the combined American-British stand in the Far East was seen in the announcement by acting Secretary of State Sumner Welles that the British withdrawal from Shanghai would have no effect whatever on the American policies and actions in China.

The announcement came simultaneously with the delivery to the Japanese ambassador here the reply to Japan's recent protest against the British withdrawal from Shanghai which the United States supported its embargo orders by the Japanese forces.

Welles' announcement indicated that the U.S. Marines will remain on guard at the international settlement in Shanghai where they have been stationed since 1927. It was believed the defense positions being vacated by the British troops would be taken up jointly by the U.S. Marines and the Shanghai Volunteer Force.

NO REPORTS

London newspapers, which have been attacking Cudahy bitterly for the remarks he made in a recent interview, declined the news of his recall and reprimand yesterday by the state department.

The Daily Mail today quoted Cudahy as saying "I do not retract one word from what I said." The ambassador told the Associated Press last night that "I have no comment to make."

He had said Belgium and other German-occupied territories now blocked by the Royal Navy would face famine this winter if they did not receive food from the United States. He also commented favorably on the conduct of the German army of occupation.

The Daily Mail quoted a friend of Cudahy as saying "I do not retract one word from what I said."

Daylight Raids On Britain Intensified By Nazi Bombers

By H. L. PERCY

LONDON, Aug. 10.—German planes, after a night of extensive activity, bombed and machine gunned in suddenly intensified daylight raids today. Raids during the night caused an unannounced number of casualties.

CUDAHY FLIES HOME ON ORDER OF PRESIDENT

Reprimanded Ambassador Leaves London Sure Of British Victory

LONDON, Aug. 10.—John Cudahy, United States ambassador to Belgium, who created a sensation in London by advocating that the United States feed Nazi-occupied countries, left by plane for Lisbon today enroute to the United States, to which he had been called home to report to President Roosevelt.

London newspapers, which have been attacking Cudahy bitterly for the remarks he made in a recent interview, declined the news of his recall and reprimand yesterday by the state department.

RETAIL SALE OF GASOLINE IS RESTRICTED

Oil Controller Prohibits Further Outlets For Petroleum Products

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—An order prohibiting the establishment in Canada of any further outlets for the retail sale of gasoline and other petroleum products was announced here today from the office of C. R. Cottrill, oil controller of Canada.

The regulations, passed Aug. 8, are made under powers given the oil controller by a federal order-in-council of last June 28. No more service stations will be permitted except those on which construction was started before Aug. 8, and even then special approval of the oil controller must be obtained before the buildings can be completed.

UNUSUALLY DARING

The German planes, unusually daring, dived through heavy anti-aircraft gunfire at some places, in their determination to strike with the greatest force.

Coasting the northeast English coast in two waves and passing over coastal towns, German planes dropped eight or nine bombs in residential districts in one town, killed two men and wounding several. Homes were damaged and shops were blown out. A fire was started in one shop.

RAIDERS FLEE

Over southeast England British Spitfire fighter planes went up in search of raiders. Two which they encountered at great heights in the clouds and fled without dropping the bombs.

In raiding night before last German planes had used glider tactics at some places, the pilots swooping at low altitudes and coasting as low as 300 feet to avoid searchlights and ground batteries. Later in the day they crossed the coast at great heights and then, with a bright sun behind them, screamed down from a clear sky to about 1,000 feet altitude to drop their bombs on towns.

Earlier planes were used exclusively in two raids on the south coast last night. The German planes dived at great heights but it was asserted that not a single balloon was downed.

Egypt To Join Britain Should Italians Attack

Nation Warned Against Mushrooming War Of Nerves Already Being Fought—Italians Face Problem

By LARRY ALLEN

Associated Press Staff Writer
CAIRO, Egypt, Aug. 10.—Egypt warned her people today against the mushrooming war of nerves already being fought, and simultaneously checked all defenses against the major military push the Italians are expected to launch from Libya.

Ready for active alignment with Britain's outnumbered African forces the moment she is attacked, Egypt's regular army was ready to swing into action, anti-aircraft and coastal batteries were fully manned and special police stood on guard against Italian attempts to land parachute troops Nazi-style.

While Italian troops in British Somaliland were reported moving on towards the principal port of Berbera, 100 miles across the Gulf of Aden, seaward, commanding the entrance to the Red Sea and British supplies, Italian troops were reported to be on the move, drawing attention from the main attack moving in the west.

ALL AREAS QUIET

Latest British reports from the Egyptian-Libyan desert said "All areas very quiet." Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, Italian commander-in-chief, apparently was concentrating his efforts on preparing a supply system for his army.

The problem facing the Italians was said to be that when Graziani moves, all his vital resources must move with him.

Military observers pointed out that water, food, gasoline and munitions would have to be kept on the move once the Italian offensive started. Any attempt to maintain contact with supply bases in the rear would be doomed to failure by British bombing attacks on the sea and long supply lines simply would increase the targets open to the R.A.F.

DRIVE ACROSS DESERT

Since any attempted drive across the Mediterranean coast would expose the Italian army to the threat of British naval bombardment, Graziani's forces are expected to launch their drive across the desert. This brings warnings from the Egyptian press that the desert sands would be as redoubtable an obstacle as the British.

There were rumors of 120,000 German troops in Libya, but reliable sources said the Nazi force amounted to not more than a few thousand assigned to help Graziani with technical aspects of his drive.

Meanwhile, the newspapers warned the people of the "war of nerves" as "blindside agitation and false rumors," saying the Italian offensive is greater than ever, and attempts to break public morale as a prelude to attack.

One source suggested the government device of imprisonment and severe fines for "rumor mongers."

French "War Guilt" Trials Expected to Be Fantastic Farce

The author of the following analysis of the French "war guilt" and the events which caused them is John H. Martin, associated press staff writer, who recently returned to the United States after a year of service in Paris. Before that, he worked in London.

—EDITOR.

By JOHN H. MARTIN

Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—France's revolutionary trial of political and military leaders charged with her defeat by Germany promises to be the most fantastic "second-guessing" affair in that country's history.

As the court began its sessions at Paris these former political leaders appeared headed for trial.

Senators Edouard Daladier,

Paul Reynaud, Leon Blum, and

Charles Chautemps, ex-minister of finance, and Georges Mandel, ex-foreign minister, were among the former ministers of Vichy France and former air minister Pierre Cot will be tried.

On the military side was the former allied commander-in-chief,

General Charles de Gaulle, leader of the "Free Frenchmen" still fighting the war beside Britain.

Already has been sentenced to death in absentia by a military tribunal. His followers are liable to the same penalty.

The trial list of accused probably will be lengthened. There still are many unsubstantiated charges from the past decade of knockdown blows, riots, strikes and power struggles in a complex parliamentary system.

Marshall Philippe Petain's authoritarian government is being to kill.

WILL BE "SCAPEGOATS"

Many believe these found guilty will be "scapegoats" offered for sacrifice at the unimpeachable demands of a furious, defeated people.

Advocates against Daladier have been that he had no right to launch

France into war that he knew she was unprepared.

Britain's Women's Land Army Proves Major Factor In Keeping The Home Front Stable And Strong During The First Year Of War

Miss Thompson Is Honored At Trousdale Tea

Complimenting her bride-sister daughter Miss Margaret Thompson who at a ceremony in Robertson United church on Monday evening was become the wife of Mr. John Beattie Patterson of Saskatoon, Mrs. B. Thompson entertained at her home, home one day recently. More than 75 guests failed to see Miss Thompson's troussau and extend best wishes to her on the occasion of her marriage.

Summer flowers were arranged in profusion throughout the house and in the parlors, making a beautiful and fragrant setting for the tea.

To receive her guests, Mrs. Thompson chose a smart dress gown in shell pink, short with accessories in white. Her marriage was of white sweet peas. Miss Thompson was a graceful figure in deep blue. Her sister, Mrs. Beattie Patterson, was to be and was Mrs. Beattie Patterson in her home. The tea was served with pink and white sweet peas.

Constitution Of Regiment W.A. Is Drawn Up

LONDON, Aug. 10.—Our home fields are our battlefields is the slogan of Britain's women's land army. The numbers have risen to 8,000. Greater acreage under cultivation, flourishing farms where men have been called away to military service, the health of the young women are the first result of this campaign inspired by Lady Denham, honorary director of the land army.

Scattered throughout Britain in small groups or individually on farms, robust girls and women between the ages of 18 and 40 are diligently hawking, harvesting, aiding to push up the total of Britain food production.

Writer Urges Evacuation Of Mothers From English Cities

TORONTO, Aug. 10.—Mrs. Ruth Drummond, an Englishwoman who found a Canadian home for two of her children through the popularity of her war articles in a United States magazine, the Ladies' Home Journal, said in an interview here today that every child and expectant mother should be taken out of England.

She said she gave premature birth to a baby during an air raid May 26 and the child had died. Her two other children, a son and a daughter, are now in Canada. Mrs. Drummond is waiting Mrs. Harry Leeming of Toronto with whom she became acquainted through correspondence about her articles. Mrs. Drummond will leave for Canada, leaving her two children, Elizabeth, eight, and Lucille, six, with the Leemings, taking her two other children, Ann, twelve, and Peter, seven, to their new home in Philadelphia.

... all service clubs in Canada should band together to press the war effort, Harold Rogers, Toronto, founder of the Kinsmen club, said here Saturday. There are many "pretty, silly jealousies" among service clubs, who live with each other in their war and other work, instead of co-operating, he said.

Explaining how he got the idea for forming the club in 1920, he said that after the war he had a family where he did not know much about the war. He suggested to a group of young men of his own age, who were in the service, to form a club. Membership in Kinsmen clubs now is limited to men under 30 years of age. The R.C.A.S.C. unit turned 41.

St. Louis Helps Tigers By Beating Indians 4-3

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 10.—A ninth-inning single by Bob Swift scoring Harold Clift gave St. Louis Browns a 4-3 victory over Cleveland Indians Friday night, enabling Detroit Tigers who lost to Chicago, to retain first place in the American League by a half game. Swift's hit came with two on base.

Limited to two hits by Mel Harder for 6 1/2 innings, the Browns pecked away for one run in the seventh, then tied the count at 3-3 in the next frame on Walt Judnich's 21st homer with Ray Cullenbine on base.

James Joy Johnston Irked No End By Bookies, Ring Dukes and Experts

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—James Joy Johnston, who manages fighters, is irked, no end. James Joy feels his lad, Bob Pastor, who takes on Billy Conn in the Polo Grounds Tuesday night, has been slighted by (1) the bookmakers, (2) the boxing commissioners and (3) the boxing "experts." Jimmy feels it isn't quite cricket that the gamblers have made Conn favorite at odds ranging from 5 to 7 all the way up to 1 to 2; that the boxing commission has cold-shouldered Rapid Robert in his training; and that most of the "experts" are picking Pittsburgh Bow to win.

"How do these gamblers figure?" Jimmy wants to know. "Pastor went 21 rounds with Joe Louis. No one thinks Conn would have a chance with the Buncher. So what do they do but name Billy favorite. What kind of a business is that?"

"The boxing commission has cold-shouldered Rapid Robert in his training; and that most of the 'experts' are picking Pittsburgh Bow to win."

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

NATURE'S COOLING SYSTEMS

PERSPIRING IS A COMMON FORM OF AIR CONDITIONING AMONG THE HIGHER ANIMALS. EVAPORATION OF PERSPIRATION FROM THE BODY SURFACE CAUSES A LOSS OF HEAT.

SOME TROPICAL ANTS CARRY PARASOLS MADE OF LEAVES.

ELEPHANTS LOSE HEAT THROUGH THEIR HUGE, THIN EARS, WHICH ARE FINELY NETTED WITH BLOOD VEINS.

BEES COOL THEIR HIVES BY FANNING THEIR WINGS, THEREBY SETTING UP AIR CIRCULATION.

MODERN SCIENCE HAS MADE ENORMOUS STRIDES IN AIR CONDITIONING AND COOLING.

BUT IT'S STILL PRETTY HARD TO BEAT AN OLD-FASHIONED HAMMOCK AND A COUPLE OF SHADE TREES.

A DOG'S COOLING UNIT IS HIS TONGUE WHICH HE EXPOSES TO THE AIR WHEN HE GETS TOO WARM.

MANY BIRDS COOL THEIR YOUNG BY SHIELDING THEM FROM THE SUN WITH THEIR WINGS.

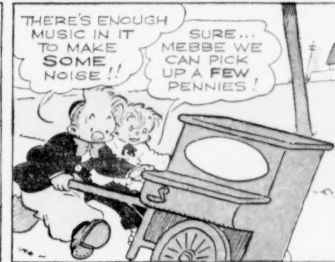

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

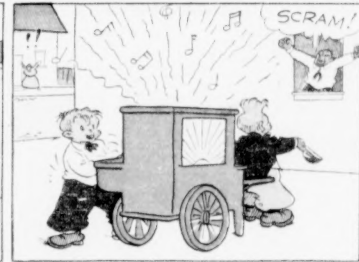

YEAH...MR. KLING SAID WE COULD HAVE IT IF WE CAME AN' TOOK IT AWAY!

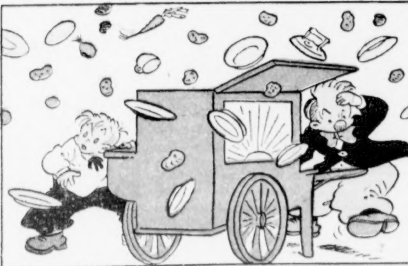

ME AN' MY PAL HERE CAME FOR THAT OLD HURDY-GURDY.

THERE'S ENOUGH MUSIC IN IT TO MAKE SOME NOISE!!

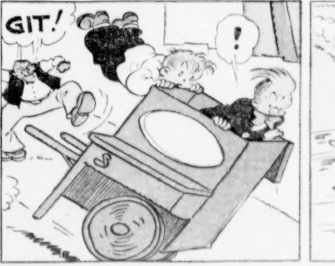

SCRAM!

THEY DON'T APPRECIATE A HURDY-GURDY... WE'LL GO ON ANOTHER STREET!

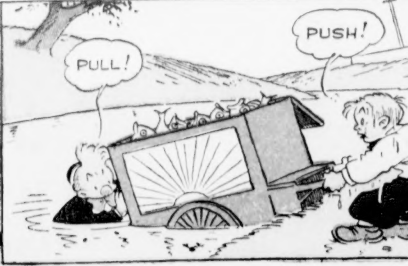

YEAH...AFTER WE GET SOME OF THESE OLD POTATOES AN' THINGS OUT.
